For the Future of Women

IMAGINE the difference YOU could make as a FACILITATOR - Empower leadership for our world!

A bold and rigorous leadership training program for university women committed to acquiring skills and confidence to develop as campus, community, national and global leaders

PURPOSE: To promote and accelerate the advancement of women worldwide

MISSION: To engage women in discovering their purpose and passion in life by inspiring and empowering them to find their individual paths to success

We are seeking women and men to SERVE AS FACILITATORS for the 2010-11 Academy year. Qualities we are seeking include:

- ★ Commitment to support women as they discover their passion and purpose
- ★ Dedication to unleashing new possibilities for women
- ★ Ability to work as a team and lead teams in envisioning a new future
- ★ Patience to understand and appreciate cultural differences and context
- ★ Flexibility and willingness to forego comfort for adventure

I am filled with gratitude for the opportunity . . .
We have been so graciously and generously welcomed and the Academy is held in such high esteem wherever we go.
The Academy members' persistence and determination are ever-present, though their confidence is fragile. They are just discovering their voice, their truth, their passion . . . lucky me: I have permission to be their greatest cheerleader.
What I know is that my heart and soul are engaged completely with these young women, these leaders for our future.
